

March 6, 1926.

Circular Letter No. 105

To Supervisors of Schools and High School Principals.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS' LICENSES

For the benefit of those persons who are looking forward to High School teaching, I have the honor to inform you that this Department will issue a High School teacher's license to those who are college graduates according to the following requirements.

(a) The minimum academic requirement for a High School license shall be graduation from a standard four year course in a recognized College with specialization in a major subject and in one or two minor subjects.

(b) The minimum professional training for a High School license shall be twelve semester hours in Education. These twelve hours should be chosen from the following subjects: Educational Psychology, Mental Tests and Measurements, History of Education, Principles of Secondary Education, Special Methods in the major subject and observation and practice of teaching.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) JUAN B. HUYKE,

Commissioner of Education.

FV/rs.